(BULLETIN)

BERLIN, May 24.—(INS)—U. S. Military Commandant Brig. Gen. Frank L. Howley ordered western sector police to take over all Communist-held railway and elevated stations in the American sector today in a direct action move to end the city's chaotic railway tie-up.

The order was made effective at 7 p.m. (1 p.m. EDT). General Howley also sent an ultimatum to Soviet authorities demanding withdrawal of all East German police units from American sector stations.

BERLIN, May 24.—The American commandant in Berlin said today the allies "are about to lose their patience" at the bloody riots that have swept the city since the Russians began trying to break the strike of transportation workers.

Brig. Gen. Frank L. Howley said that if there is a recurrence of the violence which has already taken three lives and injured over 1200 persons, western sector police "will be ordered to take over all rail stations in the American sector."

Western sector police now occupy all except two stations in the U. S. sector, two in the British sector and one in the French.

Traffic Is Paralyzed
All east zone rail traffic has been paralyzed in the Berlin suburbs.

The Soviets are reported to be arming Communist police with machine guns for an "invasion" of the city.

PA
& OBSERVES

Report is made to Pa New that spectators were rather startled about 9:45 o'clock this morning to see a live deer scampering along Falls street in the vicinity of the Castleton hotel. The deer was running west and after traversing a couple of blocks headed north.

Another unusually early indication of summer's approach Pa New notes that weed cutting along the Volant-East Brook highway has already been started.

Seeing a picture of larva of Japanese beetle by Owen P. Fox, city forester, in Monday's "New Castle News", one of Pa New's boys is reminded that while digging a small plot of ground in the 600 block of East Washington street, he removed a rotten stump of a cherry tree, and got a dozen of these larva, of large size in the immediate area. They were put on a paper pie plate in the yard, and the starlings and sparrows made short work of them.

Another large and beautiful cabin cruiser named "Marilyn" was being transported through the city on Monday afternoon. The trailer and its cargo were headed to the east.

Installation of a city drinking fountain at the war memorial in Jackson Park on East Washington street, would not go amiss. Pedestrians ascending the hill grow quite weary and thirsty by the time they have reached the park.

A visit to the new city building on Monday afternoon by one of Pa New family, shows good progress being made by workmen on (Continued on Page Two)

House Committee Cuts
Marshall Plan Funds
By Fifteen Per Cent

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, May 24.—Foreign Aid Chief Paul Hoffman and House Speaker Rayburn joined today in warning that the House appropriations committee's cut in Marshall Plan spending will hurt America's foreign policy.

Hoffman said that the 15 per cent slash may delay achievement of recovery in western Europe which would set back the goals of the Marshall Plan to "a later date and at a much higher cost."

Rayburn declared he would oppose the action, declaring it weakened the hands of Secretary of State Acheson at the Foreign Ministers Conference in Paris.

Rayburn said he will make a personal appeal to the House to restore the cuts when the bill is taken up Thursday.

In Surprise Move
The committee yesterday, in a surprise move, overruled the recommendation of its special subcommittee on foreign aid and voted a cut of $629,730,000 in the "second installment" on the Marshall Plan.

It approved $4,642,470,000 for the foreign aid program for the 15-month period from April 2, 1949 (Continued on Page Ten)

Retain Berlin Dispute
On U.N. Council Agenda

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., May 24.—The United Nations today retains the Berlin dispute on the agenda of the Security Council, despite the Big Four talks in Paris.

The listing of nineteen items still on call with the 11-nation body disclosed that neither France, Britain nor the United States has taken the necessary step to remove this complaint against Russia from the calendar.

Western sources asserted that the Berlin question will be left on the Security Council's agenda at least until after the council of foreign ministers has concluded its Paris meeting.

Although the blockade has been lifted by both sides, it is pointed out that current incidents and strike disorders in Berlin might (Continued on Page Two)

John Gates First
Defense Witness
In Red Defense

NEW YORK, May 24.—(INS)—John Gates, first defense witness at the Communist conspiracy trial, testified today that he was arrested twice—in Warren, Ohio, in 1933 and in New Castle, Pa., in 1935.

In those years he was active as an "organizer" for the young Communists League. He is now editor-in-chief of "The Daily Worker," official party organ, and one of the 11 Communist leaders charged with conspiring to teach and advocate the forcible overthrow of the U. S. government.

The stories of Gates' arrests was brought out by the defense under questioning by Attorney Harry Sachar.

Gates related that in March, 1932, he was arrested at a Communist mass meeting in front of the county courthouse at Warren, O., where he was the principal speaker and was to talk in favor of an increase in relief payments and for social insurance.

Gates said he was arrested in New Castle, Pa., in the summer of 1935 for distributing leaflets along the picket line during a strike at the Johnson Bronze Company.

RED TROOPS ARE BREAKING DEFENSE
(BULLETIN)

SHANGHAI, May 24.—(INS)—(Censored)—Thousands of Nationalist troops moved northward out of Shanghai tonight while Communist forces were reported breaking through the city's west and southwest defenses.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This censored dispatch appeared to indicate that the Nationalists may be evacuating the city as the Communists push forward.)

Nationalists Move North
Nationalist forces moved steadily northward towards Woosung, where the Whangpoo joins the Yangtze, last escape route for almost completely encircled Shanghai.

Most of the troops carried all their belongings with them as they walked or rode in trucks, handcarts or rickshaws.

The city shook with the sound of explosions as the Nationalists literally burned their bridges behind them by blowing them up.

Most of the city's six million residents retired behind closed doors as night fell.

Scuttling Four Tankers
Before moving north, the Nationalists scuttled four tankers off the Whangpoo at the point where the Avenue Edward VII joins the Bund. They scuttled a fifth off Garden Bridge.

British businessmen said the Communists have occupied British-owned Holt's wharf at Pootung, five miles from the center of Shanghai. The British said their behavior is "exemplary."

House Spy Probers Call
Two 'Mystery' Witnesses

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, May 24.—(INS)—The House Un-American Activities Committee today postponed its investigation of possible subversive agents in the United Nations when a key witness failed to answer a subpoena.

The witness, former War department employee Philip O. Keeney, claimed he could not appear today because of illness. Committee Chairman Wood (D) ordered an immediate inquiry to determine validity of the excuse.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—(INS)—Two "mystery" witnesses were called by House spy probers today in opening hearings to determine whether the United Nations is providing a haven for Soviet agents and U. S. government employees dismissed as security risks.

The unidentified witnesses are scheduled to be questioned by the House Un-American Activities Committee at the initial session which will be held behind closed doors. The committee subsequently may make the hearings public.

A committee source said that the group will seek to prove that one UN employee, a woman who was let out of a government job for security reasons, was closely acquainted with Gerhardt Eisler, who recently fled the country.

He said that the committee also has information that the woman, (Continued on Page Two)

Duff Vetoes Measure To Place Five-Year Limit On Length Of Term For Offenders

HARRISBURG, May 24.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff announced his veto last night of a measure placing a five year limit on the length of time offenders can be sentenced to the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Camp Hill.

"The requirement that the maximum of all prisoners sentenced to the Pennsylvania Industrial School be limited to five years has serious connotations, which have been called to my attention by both the Department of Welfare and the Pennsylvania Board of Parole," Duff stated in his veto message.

He said approval would "create a preference in favor of a class of prisoners based entirely upon age and institutional commitment without consideration of the fact that among the group are included such serious offenders as murderers, rapists, armed robbers, arsonists, and kidnaper."

German Unity,
Major Problem,

Second Day Of Paris Conference Begins In Cordial Atmosphere

FOUR-POWER CONTROLS
WILL BE DISCUSSED

By KINGSBURY SMITH
European General Manager, I. N. S.

PARIS, May 24.—The Big Four council of foreign ministers tackled the major problem of German unity today.

The second day of Big Four discussions in the former Anna Gould's "Pink Palace" near the arch of triumph began in the same cordial atmosphere that marked yesterday's first conference which resulted in quick agreement on an agenda.

Lieut. Gen. Clarence R. Huebner, chief deputy to Gen. Lucius D. Clay during the latter's long service as United States Military Governor of Germany, attended today with Secretary of State Acheson and other members of the American delegation.

Huebner's presence was regarded by observers as sure indication that the Big Four are going into the German issue—first item on the agenda—without delay.

Second Meeting
The foreign ministers of Britain, France, Russia and the United States sat down for their second meeting in an atmosphere of friendliness to discuss the issue all agreed to make point one on their four-point agenda.

They will also take up restoration of four-power controls over Germany in connection with the overall problem.

This vexing issue has previously stymied all efforts at big power cooperation.

Eisler Again
Refused Bail

Remanded Back To Jail As Hearing Is Delayed Until Friday In London

LONDON, May 24.—(INS)—Bail-jumping Communist Gerhardt Eisler was remanded back to London's Brixton jail without bail today at the request of U. S. Embassy Attorney F. Graham May.

The proceedings against Eisler were postponed until Friday to give U. S. attorneys more time to prepare their case and study documents received from Washington late yesterday.

Eisler, whose extradition is sought by the U. S., was remanded until Friday in quick action at Bow Street court.

The fugitive, who jumped $23,500 bail to stow away on the Polish liner Batory and flee from the United States, was again refused bail by the British court.

Dudley Collicott, Eisler's barrister, protested the delay. He said: "It is intolerable that Eisler should be kept in a British prison while the United States take their leisurely preparations in this case."

Resume Efforts To Track Down Killer

Man Shot And Killed 19-Year-Old Youth; Criminally Assaulted His Girl Friend

FARIBAULT, Minn., May 24.—(INS)—Authorities continued efforts today to track down a man who shot and killed a 19-year-old youth and criminally assaulted his 17-year-old girl friend in a "Lover's Lane" near Faribault.

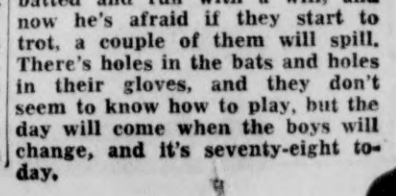

Police have obtained finger prints from a whiskey bottle dropped by the slayer and from the automobile in which he attacked the girl yesterday.

The youth, Fred Morshing, was shot three times. The girl, whose name was not disclosed, said the assailant forced her into the back seat of Morshing's car and assaulted her.

An attempt to track down the slayer with bloodhounds proved futile when the trail led to a Faribault pool hall and stopped.

The assailant was described as about 25-year-old and dressed in overalls.

SWEET CORN LIKE MEDIUM LOAM SOIL

Sweet corn, like most vegetable crops, does best on a well-drained fertile soil which has a good supply of organic material.

Medium loam or sandy soils, with manure or clover sods plowed down, have given the best results. Sweet corn generally follows sod in the rotation. Lime requirement for sweet corn is moderate, but acid soils should be corrected with lime to a red clover level of acidity (pH 5.5 to 6.0).

Fertilizer requirements vary. On medium loam soils, treated with 10 tons of manure per acre (50 pounds per 100 square feet), or with clover sod, apply 400 to 600 pounds of 4-12-4 fertilizer broadcast or drilled in.

When applied with a corn planter, 300 to 400 pounds of fertilizer per acre (3 pounds per 100 feet or row) may be placed in parallel bands on each side of the row, 2 to 3 inches deep, and 1½ to 2 inches away from the seed. On very fertile soils super-phosphate alone may be used.

On medium loam soils, without manure or clover sods, use 3-12-6 or 4-12-8 fertilizer at the rate of 600 to 800 pounds per acre (1 to 1½ pounds per 100 square feet) broadcast or drilled in. Another 300 to 400 pounds may be put on in bands with the planter (3 pounds per 100 feet of row). If fertilizer is plowed down, increase the broadcast amounts by one-third to one-half.

CAREFUL HANDLING BOOSTS EGG SALES

Since they come "pre-packaged" and have high turnover, the retailing of eggs involves a set of factors different from most other items. For that reason, the percent mark-up on eggs at retail need not be so high as the average for other items in the store to return the same margin of profit.

Eggs generally have a higher turnover than any other retail commodity except bread and milk. In some lines sold at retail several brands must be carried; in eggs, only a few, perhaps only one. Egg inventory is low in relation to sales.

A study made by the U. S. Department of Commerce shows that eggs have an average turnover of 109 times a year as compared to 76 times for other perishables, and only 8 times for dry groceries.

County stores may be able to increase their egg turnover and profits by more careful buying in relation to sales. This would help the consumer in getting a fresher product. By reducing mark-up and prices, some stores are increasing their egg sales volume, turnover, and profits.

Stores which have a reputation for retailing top-quality eggs report that by getting fresh eggs of high quality direct from their source, and handling them properly in the store (especially providing refrigeration at all times) they have been able to show a big increase in sales.

Improved egg marketing practices "all along the line" benefit the poultryman, retailer, and consumer.

MACK COX HOME WEDDING

Miss Patricia Ann Mack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Mack, of 507 East Moody avenue, became the bride of William F. Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knoll, of Lowellville, O., R.D. 2, Saturday evening, May 21, at 8:30, at a lovely wedding held in the home of the bride's parents.

Rev. J. Calvin Rose, of the Second U.P. church, officiated at the double ring ceremony before an impressive mantelpiece arrangement of white carnations and snapdragons, flanked by palms, ferns and lighted candelabra. Appropriate recorded selections of nuptial music were played as a prelude to the bridal procession.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white nylon organdy, fashioned with a dainty Peter Pan collar, a fitted bodice, cap sleeves and a full skirt. Her headpiece, made of Chantilly lace, an heirloom of her mother's family, was cut shoulder length in back and framed her face. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses, with white satin streamers to which baby sweetpeas were attached.

Mrs. H. Jack Ketzler, sister of the bride, as matron of honor, was attired in a white organdy gown worn over blue taffeta and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. She wore a tiara of pink sweetpeas in her hair.

NEW YORK, May 24.—(INS)—Raymond Fernandez and Mrs. Martha Beck, the so-called "Lonely Hearts" killers, had something to remember each other by in their New York jail cells today.

The "something" was a fervent kiss exchanged by the couple yesterday in a supreme court corridor where they met briefly after a habeas corpus hearing.

HOUSE COMMITTEE CUTS MARSHALL FUNDS 15 PER CENT

to July 1, 1950 instead of the $5-272,200,000 requested by the administration. The subcommittee had recommended a cut of $182,300,000, which was satisfactory to the administration.

Another Cut Made

Furthermore, the committee made a 15 per cent cut in the army's funds for Germany, Austria, Japan, Southern Korea and the Ryukyu Islands, cutting 150 million dollars from the one billion requested by the President. The subcommittee had recommended a cut of $50,400,000.

The Omnibus bill reported out by the committee provided $5,542,470,000, including 50 million dollars in additional aid for Greece and Turkey, a cut of $779,730,000 in the $6,322,200,000 requested by the administration. The subcommittee, after weeks of hearings, had recommended $6,089,500,000, a cut of $232,700,000.

The principal fight Thursday will be directed at restoring the funds for the European Recovery Program. The President had already reduced the amount authorized by Congress by 157 million $60 thousand dollars and the new cut brought the total reduction of 787 and a half million dollars.

Incident of a "western cowboy" dressed in all the wild west regalia stepping out of a modern automobile in the downtown section on Monday drew quite a few chuckles from pedestrians in the district. The big six footer was having difficulty with his means of transportation.

Repairs are being made to the large Ira D. Sankey memorial window which is a part of the First Methodist church. A section of the window has been removed by workmen.

WESTERN SECTOR POLICE MAY ACT IN BERLIN RIOTS

the western sectors in an effort to gain control of rail points wrested from them.

The city, meanwhile, was comparatively quiet after last night's shooting, riots and sporadic violence.

Strikers braved bullets and Communist police to re-take a string of elevated stations in a renewal of fighting that took the lives of at least two anti-Communist Germans, one of them a 16-year-old boy.

Communists holding the Westkreuz station broke before the threat of an organized assault by west Berlin police and gave up the point without further resistance.

Communist Retreat

The Communist retreat came in the face of authorization by British military authorities to west police to seize the station by force after the Communists once lost it and then regained it.

The bloodiest battle in the strike by transport workers who demanded the Soviets pay them in west German marks took place at the Zoo station where the Communists also retreated.

Three thousand strikers stormed the station in the British sector. Eight persons, including the German youth, were felled by Communist gunfire. The other six were reported wounded.

Three deaths have occurred so far in the riotous strike, and at least 1,200 persons have been injured to some extent since fighting broke out Saturday.

Soviet Officers Beaten

In the fighting at the Zoo station, two Soviet officers were seized by the angry crowd and severely beaten before they were rescued by Communist police.

Communists holding the Zoo station retreated through the British sector to the safety of the Soviet sector under a hail of rocks, hunks of metal, and sticks of wood.

Communist police still held the signal posts and switchyards at Wannsee with orders to "shoot to kill" anyone attempting to oust them.

The Soviet authorities have warned that death penalties will be meted out to any persons found guilty of attacking and injuring Communist strike-breakers or their police protectors.

Stiff prison sentences were promised for anyone attempting to prevent the Soviets from getting the stalled transport system running again, especially by sabotage such as destruction of rail equipment.

Strikers have ripped up tracks and cut power lines repeatedly in their efforts to prevent the Soviets from restarting rail transportation.

The English channel was first crossed by air in 1909.

Memorial Day was established as a day set aside for the purpose of commemorating the real American spirit breathed in the breasts of men who were willing to lay down their lives, not for personal gain, nor for glory, but for righteousness. Rotary Host To Honor Students

Senior High Graduates Are Addressed By Dr. Robert F. Galbreath

UNION STUDENT SINGS ON PROGRAM

New Castle Rotary club was host to the honor students of the 1949 graduating class at the luncheon meeting of the club in The Castle-ton Monday, when tribute was paid to them for their high scholastic standing.

The class members were introduced by their supervisor, Miss Frances Hayden, who had been presented to the club by Clare B. Book, principal of the high school.

Dr. Galbreath speaks. The speaker was Dr. Robert F. Galbreath, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, former president of Westminster college, and a Rotarian.

Dr. Galbreath emphasized the need for a high moral standard in life as well as a high intellectual standard. "Intelligence without moral stability, is not a very sure foundation," Dr. Galbreath stated.

He urged the group to have a moral ideal and to have the courage to stand by it. "The worst motto in the world," he said in conclusion, "is everybody's doing it."

During the program, a fine vocal number was presented by Lynn Fowler, of Union Township High school, who was accompanied at the piano by Miss Jean Morgan.

"No, sir," replied the youngster. "Dismissed," snapped Dad. Up came seven-year-old Dennis. "Did you break the window?" "No, sir," replied Dennis, from his post at rigid attention. "Dismissed," said Dad and Dennis left.

"Did you break the window?"

the father asked five-year-old Danny.

"Yes, sir," replied the youngster standing stiff and straight. The father launched into a rebuke supported with a vigorous paddling.

"Now, do you have anything further to say?" asked Dad. "Yes, sir," blustered Danny. "I would like to transfer off this ship."

WASHINGTON CALLING

the appropriations for European aid and the military.

The President has said that the present authorization for ECA can be cut $150,000,000. While they are not talking about it publicly at this time, the leaders of his party at the Capitol are convinced that the drop in commodity prices makes a much deeper cut not only possible but desirable. Similarly, they see an opportunity to carve at least a billion dollars out of the military appropriation.

The temptation is always to use a meat-axe on appropriation bill. It is difficult or impossible for even the most conscientious members of Congress ever to know enough about the complicated and voluminous details of a government budget as thick as two telephone books. But a uniform lash across the board can do great harm. There are ways to prune the luxuriant tree of government, if Congress will only take a little time to consider them.

he grows adapted to this new program, surprise him some day by purchasing a gift for him. But several more trips should be made without his receiving any gift. Correcting such matters may be harder for you than for the child. Nevertheless you don't want this problem to go on indefinitely and grow worse and worse. You surely don't desire to cultivate continued selfishness in your child and thus make him and yourself more and more unhappy.

GNCA Roundup Wranglers Ready

Leather In Shape, Spurs Shined, Lariats Coiled, Get Going June 1

There's a lot of cowhands rarin' to go in New Castle just now. Top hands, steer riders, bronc busters, calf ropers, the lot of them are waiting for the morning of June 1 when the Greater New Castle Association Roundup gets under way.

It's Bar Z Ranch. For the roundup the GNCA is known as Bar Z ranch and for the next week the office of the association will be ranch headquarters for Ranch Foreman James A. Rugh, his foreman, Orville Potter, William Milson and Jack Preston.

Wednesday night the crew will get together in the ranch house for a session of preparatory instructions. The new hands will get the benefit of the experience of the old cow hands and the crew will be briefed on the three-day roundup.

Tuesday night May 31, is the big night for the membership of the GNCA and the general public. The annual dinner will be held in the Cathedral with James R. Gheen as the speaker. "Jimmy" Gheen is a speaker who combines humor, philosophy and horse sense and anywhere he has been he has usually gotten a return bid. This is a return appearance for him in New Castle.

It's For Everybody. The Greater New Castle Association is for everybody. It's the clearing house for community problems, the nerve center of civic activity, the spark plug of the engine called New Castle.

It's an information bureau, a selling agency, it's the community trouble shooter. Anytime there is something to do upon a city wide basis, the GNCA is called upon and invariably does a job.

The propulsive power that keeps the GNCA in gear is money, just ordinary money, but known as dues. It takes money to staff an association, to carry along the expenses, to make it possible that New Castle has a voice that is heard whenever work is to be done.

Terming the membership drive a roundup is merely tinging a serious business with a dash of color. The goal set by the cowhands is 1,000 head, pardon us 1,000 members. It might as well be you.

Pittsburgh Woman 'Con' Game Victim

Told Police She Gave Confidence Woman $4,000 Of Her Savings To Keep For Awhile

PITTSBURGH, May 24.—(INS)—Mrs. Rachel Heller, 58, of Pittsburgh probably never heard of the old "con" game until she went to bed yesterday with a story about a woman to whom she gave $4,000 of her savings.

The woman, Mrs. Heller told police, approached her and said that a friend of hers had found $6,000 which she would share with Mrs. Heller.

Then, came the "con." The woman wanted proof of Mrs. Heller's ability to handle money. So, the 58-year-old Pittsburgher took $4,000 from the bank and told her new friend to keep it for a while.

Bodiam is a village in Sussex, England noted for Bodiam castle, which was built in the 14th century by Sir Edward Dalyngruge, a warrior of Crecy and Poitiers. It is one of England's most imposing fortresses, and is one of southern England's best examples of baronial defenses under the Plantagenet kings.

Clowns, Pretty Girls And Blooded Horses A Specialty

The traditional triumvirate of the big top—clowns, horses and pretty girls, will be seen in abundance when the new Cole Bros. Circus comes to New Castle on Friday, May 27.

The equine talent is the result of world-wide scouting by men who know horses; the clowns are representatives of many lands because a good laugh is universal and in pantomime it is not necessary to speak any particular tongue. The pretty circus girls come from towns big and small and from farms. Vander Barlette, the man who has the job of training potential big-top stars, especially likes to get farm girls.

"They are apt to be healthy, good-natured; they have been around animals and they don't expect circus life to be easy," he explains. International good looks dot the Cole Bros. Circus roster of feminine pulchritude, for the girls have come from many countries. The ones who come from abroad are as awestruck with the way in which the big circus sets up in a new town every day, gives afternoon and night performances in which three rings and hippodrome track and the air above are kept busy most of the time, and then dismantles and goes roaring away into the night on its own trains to repeat the magic in another town the next day.

Of course there are thrill acts like the monster repeating super-cannon that shoots human bullets in the persons of Sylvia and Donald Zaccini, and there is the world's topmost tightrope star, Con Colleano; but the old-fashioned elements that thrilled grandpa and grandma have not been neglected. The 1949 edition of "America's Favorite Show" has managed to combine the fine, old-fashioned feel of the old-time circus with the newest excitement to be found under any big-top.

In hunting the wild boar, any and every large and powerful kind of dog has been used, those with rough coats being preferred, as being less likely to sustain serious injury from the boar's tusks. The name "boar-hound", however, is generally given in England to the breed also known as Great Dane or Ulmer dog.

Women Of Moose Attend Convention

A group of local Women of the Moose attended the convention of the Academy of Friendship held Sunday, May 22, at Little Washington, Pa.

Approximately 2,000 women representing Moose Auxiliaries from all over the state, attended the morning session at which time 415 women received their degree in the Academy of Friendship, the first degree and the second step in the Women of Moose.

These degrees were given the women by the following dignitaries of the Moose Auxiliary: Fern Stover, dean; Lena Bradley, associate dean; Katherine Smith, grand chancellor and Stella Fisher, of Sharon, graduate of the College of Regents.

Philadelphia received the honor of having the most women receive their degrees with 24 representatives. New Castle had 13 women taken into the Academy under their graduate regent, Mrs. Elgin McConnell. The women were accompanied by their president of the Academy of Friendship, Mrs. Mildred Cartwright.

During the afternoon sessions, which were open to all Moose Auxiliaries, one of the largest classes ever taken into the Women of the Moose was initiated. Headquarters for the convention was the George Washington Hotel in Little Washington.

The next regular meeting of the local Women of the Moose will be June 1, at which time there will be election of officers.

"Anyone Can Do It" Says 78 Year Old Professor

A college professor of 78 hit the nail on the head recently, when we were discussing the problem of providing financial security for later years.

"Mr. Rasey," he said, "I never earned a large salary. Yet, today, I'm enjoying a comfortable retirement income, guaranteed as long as I live. And anyone can accomplish the same thing by following a simple plan like yours."

Now this column doesn't often seek direct response from its readers. But if you've been saying to yourself: "I wish I had a plan, within my means, that would enable me to ease up some day, a plan to which I could add from time to time," then let me ask you—yes, urge you—to send for a copy of the Phoenix Mutual Retirement Income catalog.

It describes 14 different plans and shows how you can retire at 55, 60, 65, or 70. It outlines joint plans for husbands and wives—plans for professional men—for business women—and for many others.

Just drop me a line, and you'll receive the catalog by return mail—without cost or obligation. Send for it today. It may mean a great deal to you in the years ahead.

"Assignment; America"

By INEZ ROBB

(Distributed By International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 24.—(INS)—The jive disciples must up-date their talk.

"You cookin' with gas?" was mighty snappy jive repartee a few seasons back.

And a Hep Cat replied "on all four burners."

However, if jive is to keep abreast of the times, this dialogue will have to be revised to read:

"You cookin' with radar?"

And the reply will scan thus:

"On high frequency, 2,450,000,000 cycles to the sec!"

For radar has been captured in the kitchen and boxed in a stove that uses radar's magnetron tube, geared at 2450 megacycles.

Since science and machinery huffie me good, I don't know quite what that means except that the housewife of the future, when she arranges the pots and pans, will be cooking on a wave length assigned by the federal government, exactly as radio stations now operate on specified wave lengths.

One such radarrange, made by the Raytheon Manufacturing Company of Waltham, Mass., one of the two firms licensed to make radar tubes in America during the war, is anchored in the basement of the Horace Mann Building on Columbia University campus.

Radar Cooking

Margaret Fairchild, a home economics expert who is doing experimental work in radar cooking for the U. S. Navy, the University and the Raytheon Company, gave me a demonstration in which the wonder stove cooked ginger bread cakes in twenty seconds, scrambled eggs in twelve seconds, made a big chocolate pudding in five minutes and popped a whole ear of popcorn in 32 seconds flat.

The stove itself looks like a white enamel electric water heater with a stainless steel oven inset about midships. The stove has no "top" or burners. All the cooking is done in the oven, since the energy or heat waves would escape on a flat surface.

It beats all for an old-fashioned cook like myself to put her hand in an oven from which burning hot cupcakes have just been removed and find it cool, and the steel sides, top and bottom, of the oven not even warm to the touch.

But radar heat doesn't work like the old wood, gas or electric stove. Such energy or heat, Miss Fairchild explained, does not penetrate metal. So that explains the four-inch glass bull's eye set into the back of the stove. The microwaves or energy or whatever makes radar cook sneak in through the glass inset.

Bake Potato Quickly

Once the heat has sneaked in the back way, an antenna fastened to the top of the oven turns constantly to help scatter the heat, which is sufficient to bake a potato in two to four minutes and broil a steak in 45 to 75 seconds, depending on whether you like it wounded or well done.

This stove is not only made to specifications for the short order cook (and 80 hotels are already using radaranges), but is ideal for the culinary Peeping Tom. The stove door is perforated, like a sieve, with 547 holes not quite the size of a pencil.

What is even more baffling, however, is the fact that heat doesn't escape through these same holes. But wonders never cease: The holes are not as wide as the wave lengths filling the oven on the 2450 megacycle circuit, and the heat—no Houdini in handcuffs—can't get away.

Just to complicate things further, water runs in and out of the range constantly during the cooking period to cool the radar dings, on the same principal as water cooling the motor of an auto.

In the past, any woman who could keep a wood fire going in a stove qualified as a domestic science expert. But in the future, it looks as if we shall have to be graduate engineers and licensed mechanics before we can operate in the kitchen.

But from here on out, we have the perfect answer when the angel food cake falls flat on its own face:

"Honey, I don't think the stove is tuned in right and, anyways, there was an awful lot of static today."

WATERS-THOMPSON WEDDING

Miss Minerva Waters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Waters of Green street, became the bride of Carlee Thompson, son of Mrs. A. M. Wynn, 210 Short street, Saturday, May 21, in the home of Rev. G. L. Smith, 15 South Front street. Rev. Smith performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

It was all my fault, Pearl. I admit I was surly and grumpy. No wonder that even the kids were scared of me. But everything's better now. I've found out that constipation caused by lack of bulk in my diet can be licked! They say it's America's most famous laxative cereal—believe me, it sure gets my vote. Or make it up into muffins—they taste grand too . . . Come home, dear, and find a brand new man waiting for you. Red Cross Plans Dinner-Meeting

Authority On Disaster For Eastern Area To Be Principal
Speaker May 26

CHAPTER OFFICERS WILL BE ELECTED

Joseph W. Varner

S. Glenn McCracken, chairman, Lawrence County Chapter, American Red Cross announced today that plans have been completed for the Chapter's annual meeting. This will be a dinner-meeting Thursday, 6:30 p. m., May 26th at the First Methodist Church, corner Jefferson and North streets. The price of the dinner is $1.00. The meeting is open to all members of the Red Cross and every member is urged to attend. There will be the annual election of the board of directors and chapter officers, also action to approve revision of the chapter by-laws.

The guest speaker of the evening will be Joseph W. Varner, assistant regional director, eastern area, American Red Cross. Mr. Varner will discuss disaster preparedness, and National Red Cross disaster operations. This subject is especially timely in view of the near-disaster winds which struck so close to Lawrence County this week. Mr. Varner comes to the chapter with a wealth of experience in disaster operations. Since he joined the Red Cross staff in 1943 he has functioned in eight major disaster relief operations: West Virginia-Pennsylvania tornado in 1943; Cleveland East Ohio gas explosion in 1944; Ohio Valley spring flood in 1944; Cumberland River flood in Kentucky in 1946 and 1947; Pennsylvania flood of May 1946; the Ohio-Pennsylvania tornado of 1947; and the Maine forest fires of 1947.

Directs Flood Relief
In the 1945 Ohio Valley spring flood he was a director in charge of operations in the Louisville, Kentucky area. He was director in charge of operations in the West Virginia-Pennsylvania tornado disaster of the preceding year. In the East Ohio Gas Co. explosion at Cleveland he was assistant director of operations.

Mr. Varner is a native of West Virginia and a graduate of West Virginia University. Prior to his present position of assistant regional director, Mr. Varner was assistant director of disaster service in charge of operations. Miss Jeanette Luxembourg of Ellwood City who has just returned home from overseas Red Cross hospital work will also speak. Miss Luxembourg has served in military hospitals in Germany for 1 1/2 years and has returned from Hawaii where she has been stationed the past year. Her experiences have been many and varied. Mr. McCracken urges all members to attend this meeting, and anyone wishing to make reservations may call the Chapter House, 5084.

GERMAN UNITY, MAJOR PROBLEM, BEING TACKLED

have scored an initial advantage in their first meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Vishinsky.

Surprisingly Amicable
The Russian representative was surprisingly amicable when the west successfully opposed his proposition that Japan be put on the agenda along with German and Austrian peace treaties.

The Russian foreign minister dropped the subject when western spokesmen insisted that the present conference concern itself with the fate of Germany and Austria.

Other points on the agenda are the Berlin problem, including the controversial currency issue; preparation of a German peace treaty; and consideration of a peace pact for Austria.

The Berlin issue has been highlighted by the bloody riots of recent days between striking west Berlin transport workers and their Communist bosses.

The amicable nature of yesterday's opening of the conference was apparent in the exchange of conversation between Vishinsky and British Foreign Secretary Bevin at the outset of the two and one-half hour meeting.

Vishinsky said to the three western ministers: "I am sure we will settle all points on the agenda." Bevin responded that "that will depend largely on you." To which the often vituperative Vishinsky smilingly replied: "I do not see why. On your side is a three-power meeting and agreement depends three times as much on three as on one."

In backing down from his request that the present ministers' conference discuss the Japanese treaty, Vishinsky said he hoped a date will be set for consideration of it.

MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM READY

address of the day will be given by Attorney Thomas V. Mansell, of New Wilmington.

Also on the program, will be Rev. Thomas J. Jones, pastor of the First Congregational church; Rabbi Ivan J. Gruen, of Temple Israel Congregation; and Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso, assistant pastor of St. Vitus R. C. church. Earl Hammond of the late war will sing, "My Buddy." There will also be band selections.

After the exercises at the War memorial, the participants will assemble into parade formation, and will march to Greenwood cemetery, where the concluding exercises will take place at the Veterans plot. Here flowers will be placed on the graves of those buried in this plot.

To Decorate Graves
Prior to Memorial Day, the graves of the veterans in the community's cemeteries will be decorated by the different veteran organizations.

Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, will decorate the graves of those interred in Greenwood, St. Mary's, St. Joseph's, and the Shenango U. P. cemeteries, on Thursday evening.

Sunday morning, the two V. F. W. posts will decorate the graves in Oak Park and Graceland cemeteries; while the Catholic War Veterans will decorate the graves in St. Vitus, St. Nicholas, St. Lucy, and Sts. Phillip and James cemeteries.

DEFENDERS OF SHANGHAI ARE MOVING NORTH

officials warned their Nationals to stay indoors following an emergency meeting of the diplomatic and consular corps at the Swiss consulate.

Airfield Still Open
Lunghwa airfield, on the outskirts of Shanghai, was still open this afternoon when 36 Austrian Jews took off for Vancouver, British Columbia.

Communist troops first were reported to have smashed the city's defense perimeter at Sikawei, a suburb only five miles to the southwest of the city, and near Lunghwa.

Thousands of panic-stricken refugees flooded downtown Shanghai ironically just a short time after the Nationalists staged a "victory" parade for successes claimed north of the city.

Refugees from Sikawei and adjacent Hungjiao said the Communists launched a heavy machine gun attack on the Hungjiao rail line. One of Shanghai's important airfields is located at Hungjiao, just five miles from the city's boundary.

Registered scoutmasters of the council will provide leadership for the provisional troops at the council campsite this year. This is made available for the scouts that cannot go camping with their own scoutmasters.

List of Graduates
Scouters from the Connoquenessing District that completed the camping course were: Merle Schilling, Charles Follette, Wilson Holbein, Charles Anderson and Charles Wimer. From the Kuskuski District: N. J. McCluskey, Thomas Klingensmith, Ray Zeigler, Robert Leasure, Herbert Rodgers, William Weitz, Lee Whiting, Alan Chamberlain, John Klingensmith and Clinton Kennaday.

AEC Tells Congress Of Missing Uranium

Reports That Two Bars Of U-235 Were Hidden Nine Months Before Loss Was Discovered

WASHINGTON, May 24.—(INS)—The Atomic Energy Commission told Congress today that two bars of uranium 235 were taken from the Hanford atomic plant in a security test and hidden for nine months before the "loss" was discovered.

Carroll Wilson, AEC general manager, who made this disclosure, was asked if it were not true that "plans" of the commission have been stolen. He replied: "Out of millions of documents, I am sure some have been taken."

Wilson testified before the Senate committee investigating the AEC.

He told how a commission security officer removed two bars of U-235 from the Hanford (Wash.) installation last August.

Wilson said that not until a few days ago did General Electric, the firm which operates the Hanford plant, discover that the vital A-bomb element was missing.

Will Plant Carp In Shenango River

Fire Chief H. F. Steinbrink, president of the Lawrence County Sportsmen's association, received word late this morning that the State Fish Commission will plant 4,000 carp in the Shenango river here on Thursday, May 26.

The fish will arrive here at 11 a. m. at the post office and will be taken to points in the river and released immediately.

TWO FIRE CALLS

City firemen had two calls Monday afternoon, neither of any consequence. At 4:47 Seventh Ward firemen were called to the 800 block on North Liberty street for a grass fire. At 2:43 p. m. B truck was called to East Washington and Mercer streets to wash away gasoline which the heat of the sun had caused to run out of the tank of a truck.

Several interesting missionary services have been planned in the city this evening, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, when Dr. Y. T. Chiu of Canton, China, superintendent of the United Brethren missions there, will speak and show slide pictures of his work.

His subject will be "Christian Missions in the Light of Communism".

For the past three years he has been teaching chemistry in Huntington college, Huntington, Ind.

Dr. Chiu will speak this evening at 8 o'clock at the Washington Union Mission, Union township; Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the First United Brethren church, North Crawford avenue, and on Thursday evening at 7:45 o'clock in the Highland Heights United Brethren church.

Dr. Rutledge Case May Reach Jury Late Thursday

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., May 24.—(INS)—Prosecution rebuttal witnesses levelled their guns again today at the testimony of Dr. Robert C. Rutledge, Jr., and his status quo wife.

The state stepped up its rebuttal tempo with new attacks on the stories told by the St. Louis physician and the blonde 23-year-old Sydney. Rutledge is charged with first degree murder of his wife's alleged seducer.

County Attorney William W. Crissman said he will recall Mrs. John C. Hattman of Coraopolis, Pa., kindly, gray-haired mother of the victim, Byron C. Hattman, who the prosecution alleges was knifed to death for motives of green, jealousy and revenge.

Hattman is also the man with whom Sydney has admitted intimacies, alleging the attentions were forced after the St. Louis bachelor-engineer plied her with "double Bourbons."

Crissman's action came as the life-and-death drama of Rutledge's so-called "murder of love" trial nears a climax. Observers said a possibility exists the case may go to the jury late Thursday, but more probably Friday.

The state's rebuttal gave the St. Louis doctor no respite, despite the abrupt announcement by Counsel R. S. Milner yesterday that "the defense rests."

Det. Tom Condon of Cedar Rapids was immediately called to the stand by the prosecution as its first rebuttal witness.

Registration Of Pre-School Age Children Should Be Registered To Start In Fall

If you have a child who will be six years of age before February 1, 1950, he or she is eligible to enter school in September of 1949. But before entrance he or she should be registered in the elementary school nearest your home.

Dr. Frank L. Burton, superintendent of schools today announced that registration of this group of pre-school youngsters will be made in the elementary schools Wednesday and Thursday, May 25 and 26.

In order to avoid confusion the registration has been divided up as follows. Last name starting with A to and including D, Wednesday, May 25 1 to 2 p. m.; E to and including I, Wednesday, May 25, 2:30 to 3:30 p. m. J to O inclusive, Thursday, May 26, 1 p. m. to 2 p. m. P to Z inclusive, Thursday, May 26, 2:30 to 3:30 p. m.

All parents are asked to co-operate in this pre-school registration.

Rebekah Lodge Of Enon Valley Meets

Regular meeting of the Past Noble Grand of Arwilda Rebekah Lodge No. 556 of Enon Valley was held May 11, at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Fawcett, district deputy president of Lawrence county.

The president, Mrs. W. G. Inboden, presided. Ten members answered to roll call at the business meeting. Plans were discussed for a trip to the Rebekah Home in Pittsburgh, also for a picnic in the early summer.

The hostess served a delicious lunch. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. M. J. Duignan.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

DON'T SHUT THEM OUT

Parents sometimes want to say something in the presence of the children which they'd rather not have the youngsters understand. You know what happens then. A little spelling bee begins. "H-i-s n-o-o-s-e i-s o-u-t-j-o-i-n-t." Or perhaps the message is camouflaged by using "hi-falutin" language—"The young offspring's proboscis is slightly askew."

All this may seem harmless enough, but it so often results in the child feeling shut out—something we ought to try to avoid. If it seems important to talk over something privately, mother and father can do it later. We would consider it rude to attempt to communicate through some secret means when we are with other adults. Those, for instance, who use a foreign language when they are with people who do not understand it are hardly approved by our etiquette authorities. It's just as important to show consideration and respect for children as it is for adults.

If we show youngsters this sort of courtesy we can expect them to show the same toward us and others.

Motorcyclist Is Badly Injured

Norman Recheck Loses Control Of Vehicle And Crashes Into Store Front

When a motorcycle, which he had borrowed, and rode, became uncontrollable at 11:40 p. m. Monday, it dashed from Market street, across South Jefferson street, broke three large plate glass windows in the Ruzewich store, and caused Norman Recheck, aged 20, of R. D. 9, Ellwood road, to undergo treatment for severe lacerations of his left arm, both hands, and head, in the Jameson Memorial hospital, police stated.

According to the report at police headquarters, Recheck borrowed the "cycle" from Cliff Alexander, County Line street.

He parked it in Market street, then, when he started it, he lost control of the machine which dashed across South Jefferson street into the Ruzewich store windows.

Recheck was taken in an ambulance to the Jameson Memorial hospital.

CHOOSE GARMENTS FOR THEIR DRY-CLEANING ABILITY

When selecting ready-made garments, a wise shopper looks beyond a pleasing style and proper fit to labels which tell whether a garment may be washed or dry-cleaned.

Not all dry-cleaning mishaps are the dry-cleaner's fault; often they are the fault of the garments. Avoid narrow seam allowances on loosely-woven fabrics. They may fray or pull out at the seams through strain in wearing or pressing. Generous seams that won't split open during wear or cleaning will give the best service.

It also pays to watch for cleanable belts. Belts are important accessories. Belts which are glued together are difficult and often impossible to clean. Fabric, leather, or imitation leather pasted on buckles or backs of belts may loosen and fray in cleaning. A plastic backing for belts has been developed which seems to stand up well through dry-cleaning.

Homemakers are cautioned to avoid dark buckram in facings or stiffenings. It is often responsible for ugly stains on garments. Fugitive dyes in the trimmings, thread, and inter-facings may bleed color stains on the fabrics which are impossible to remove. Choose garments which are stitched fabric or light-colored buckram used for stiffening.

Remove buttons from garments that are to be dry-cleaned, unless they are guaranteed to survive the cleaning process. Buttons that melt, discolor, or fall apart spoil the smart appearance of a garment.

DYE SLIP COVERS TO BRIGHTEN HOME

Many homemakers have slip covers which are in good condition, but are badly faded. Buy an all-purpose dye and brighten these faded articles.

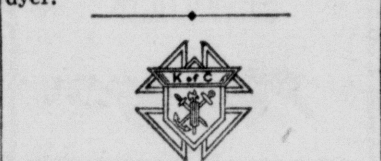

new dye (called the "top" dye), will change the color of all the colors in the faded slip cover. For example, if the slip cover or draperies are blue, rose, and green on a neutral background, and the top dye is yellow, then the colors will become blue-green, or green, orange, and yellow-green respectively, on a yellowish background.

For best results, it is necessary to know colors and how to combine them. Booklets put out by the different dye companies give details for dyeing and the results of a top dye in the original colors. These may be obtained where the dyes are sold.

Read direction carefully before beginning the dyeing process. Some homemakers have found using the washing machine a satisfactory container. The dye bath is prepared, poured into the machine, and the article is put in, swished about for a minute or two, then rinsed.

Test for possible shrinkage and running of colors before dyeing.

Wash a piece of the material first. Certain drycleaning establishments offer a dyeing service. If the job is particularly difficult, it may be advisable to have a commercial dyer.

There will be a regular meeting of the Knights of Columbus on Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the club rooms, 349 1/2 East Washington street. Deputy grand knight Ambrose J. Ryan will be in charge. Important by-laws are to be voted upon. After the meeting, Thomas J. Cunningham will conduct a class in public speaking.

Order Special Attention For Parking Meters

"Pay strict attention to meters south of the Central fire department, South Jefferson street, and tag all offenders of the parking law."

This is a bulletin issued by Police Chief Robert D. Hanna to patrolmen this morning. According to reports, motorists have parked, but have neglected to insert a nickel or a dime in the meter for the parking privilege.

President Truman Has 'Tough' Time

Difficult Job Securing Capable Men To Accept U. S. Posts Develops

JOHNSON'S STAND MAKES DIFFICULTY

(Special To Central Press) WASHINGTON, May 24.—President Truman has had a rough time trying to get capable men to accept the posts of secretary of the navy and secretary of the army.

The president's difficulties have arisen chiefly from the blunt, if not headlong manner in which Defense Secretary Louis Johnson has been "unifying" the armed services.

Johnson is terribly sincere in his desire to end the Air Force-Navy wrangling which has delayed for nearly two years the defense integration ordered by Congress. However, prospective tenants of the army and navy posts are afraid they would be little more than figureheads under the hard-driving defense secretary.

Johnson's ax to date has fallen almost exclusively on the navy and its super-carrier, but the other services—even the apparently "pet" air force—are fearful that they may be next for a trimming.

The army post was offered to Curtis Calder, New York industrialist, and the navy job to Jonathan Daniels, former Truman aide and son of the World War I navy secretary, Josephus Daniels. Daniels declined with thanks, saying the press of private business precluded his acceptance. It was finally accepted by Francis Patrick Matthews, Omaha, Neb., attorney.

"UPS" AND "OOPS" IN THE SENATE

Senator Homer Ferguson (R) Michigan, told the Senate the other day he has found another reason why it is called the "upper chamber."

The reason, Ferguson said, is that every time an appropriation bill comes along, the Senate "ups" the total.

The Michigan senator is leading an economy drive to slash all money bills five per cent. He thinks that if government expenses can be cut that amount, a tax increase may not be necessary.

However, Ferguson said he may live to regret his action even though it does avert a tax increase. He recalled in a floor speech that a few years ago an effort of his to cut a government bill was successful.

He added: "And what happened? The first place the administration picked for economy was the home area of the junior senator from Michigan."

Ferguson said his phone rang night and day with complaints. He made it clear that he thought the administration was "just getting even" by selecting his home area for the first curtailment of services.

NEW BROOM
Another indication of Defense Secretary Johnson's terrible sincerity is his determination to get rid of the so-called "influential" brokers who claim they can "place" defense contracts.

Johnson, embittered already by string-pulling to get more dollars out of the public treasury, has adopted an attitude of "driving the money-changers from the temple."

The secretary minced no words when he appeared recently before the United States Chamber of Commerce where laudatory speeches about the country's future are usually expected from government dignitaries.

Instead, he lashed out at "power-seeking and merger-mad corporation officials" and served notice he will place defense contracts where he pleases, including with small business that does not hire brokers. He said:

"There is no need for special brokers, for 13 per centers, for 10 per centers, or even for 5 per centers."

"There is no need for anyone to intervene between small business and the government to procure government contracts."

"To those who claim to sell 'influence in the right spots,' I say 'we will drive you out of the national military establishment!'"

"Let those who engage in questionable brokerage activities heed this warning."

Fertilizer Tests Show Methods Are Not So Important

Methods Of Application Not Nearly As Important As Fertilizer Itself

STATE COLLEGE, May 24.—(INS)—How fertilizer is applied to garden crops is not nearly as important as whether fertilizer is applied. Experiments conducted for several years at Pennsylvania's agricultural experiment station compared five methods of applying fertilizer to sweet corn, cabbage and cucumbers, as well as no fertilizer.

Dr. M. L. Odland, who supervised the research at Penn State, reports "for sweet corn there was little difference in yield due to method of fertilizer placement, nor was the difference among treatments for cabbage or cucumbers."

He did report "a considerable increase in yield for all three crops by the use of fertilizer as compared with no fertilizer."

Methods of fertilizer placement used in the experiments were plowing down fertilizer in bands in the burrow, broadcasting before plowing, broadcasting after plowing, split applications and side dressing.

At the same time Dr. Odland used cabbage and tomato plants to test the benefits of starter solutions. He reports that in the series of tests, starter solutions "were again found to increase yields of cabbage and tomatoes."

State 'Know How' Goes To Europe

Steel-Making, Shipbuilding, Food Processing Know How, Part Of Marshall Plan

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—(INS)—Pennsylvania's technical "know how" has journeyed to Europe as a result of the Marshall Plan.

The "know how" is, in form, scribbles in the notebooks of production teams from western European countries, and which contains valuable tips on Pittsburgh steel-making, Philadelphia shipbuilding and mid-state food processing.

Out of six groups of labor leaders to visit the United States, four have returned with a good word for Pennsylvania's production centers.

Although not yet in practice, there is hope that the information will play an important part on the path to European recovery.

NEW YORK, May 24.—Wine will go to a lady's head—and show itself in her walk—more than ever this fall.

But it's the fashion industry, not Alcoholics Anonymous, which will take over the situation.

Some top New York stylists hinted today that dubonnet, burgandy and other red-blue shades will be high-fashion colors in hats, shoes and accessories for the coming fall season.

Several reported that wine, usually considered a "dressy" color, will be promoted this year mainly for sports wear.

Court House Compromise Ends Injunction Case

Hearing Scheduled For Monday
Abandoned—Union
To Organize Some Hotel Workers

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

By agreement between the parties at interest, the injunction asked by the Leslie Hotel has been abandoned. The hearing scheduled for Monday morning was not held. The injunction petition arose when the Leslie Hotel was picketed by representatives of the Hotel and Restaurant Employees, in which it was charged the hotel was unfair. The hotel asked that the union named, also the Bartenders' International Union along with Mike Sacco, agent, Blanche White, Edith Phillips and Dorothy Arthur be restrained from picketing. It was further asked that the unions and the persons named be restrained from intimidating employees of the hotel, and also from interfering with patrons of the hotel. An agreement was reached whereby the unions will be permitted to organize part of the employees of the hotel, if they so desire.

BENEFICIARIES TO GET MONEY

Under an opinion and order handed down by Judge W. Walter Braham, the provisions of the will of the late Archibald Reed Mornes are held good. The beneficiaries named are to get the bequests left them if the preliminary decree becomes final and the widow Florence Mornes is denied over $14,000. This was a case where Mr. and Mrs. Mornes entered into a prenuptial contract. The contract provided that when Mr. Mornes died, his widow was to get all of his estate over and above $6,000.

Prior to his death he turned into a joint account some $25,000 worth of bonds and then made a will. In the will he left about $14,000 to several relatives and friends. This the widow claimed to be hers, inasmuch as the estate he left, over and above bequests, amounted to $7,500, the value of his home.

Judge Braham held there was no fraud and pointed to the fact that Mr. Mornes had left his widow some $25,000 in bonds through the joint account.

The case was brought against the Lawrence Savings and Trust Company trustee, Dr. Edwin F. Jackson, George Mornes, Charles Hammond, Sr., Eileen Scheidemantle, Rea Marshall Lytle, Betty Duff and Christine Marshall.

The decree is preliminary but becomes absolute unless exceptions are filed in ten days.

NATURALIZATION COURT

Nine new citizens were sworn Monday when Naturalization court was held. Ray Gensler, naturalization examiner represented the government.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED

Upon a plea of guilty to a charge of assault and battery, Arthur L. Lewis was fined $25 and costs Monday, and six months to the county jail. The jail sentence is suspended upon payment of the fine and costs.

By FRANCES MARTEL

THE MODERN BUSINESS WOMAN

"I am a business woman in an executive capacity. It is frequently necessary for me to take men and sometimes men and their wives to lunch or dinner. It is always somewhat awkward for me to accept and pay the check when I am with a man. How can this be done gracefully, without embarrassing the men for whose meal I am paying?"

Answer: This is one of the new situations created by woman's taking her place along with men in industry. Probably it will be some time before the stronger sex becomes acclimated to this condition. But with woman's slow but sure rise to executive positions, it must be faced even by the most hardened misogynist.

Since no flirtatious woman using her sex to rise in business would be chosen for any position of great authority, we will skip the importance that dignity and reserve play in such a situation. This is one time when a woman, regardless of her attractiveness, should forget her sex and realize that to compete she has got to be clever and more or less independent—free from the desire to use feminine wiles to get by.

Because, when you take a client on a business luncheon, you are assuming no personal financial responsibility—the cost of the meal being assumed by the company, simply ask the waiter for the check and pay it without hesitancy or coyness. If there is any check-grabbing by your male guest, explain that this meal is "on the company."

If you have occasion to take a man and wife out to lunch or dinner on your own, you might, to avoid embarrassment make previous arrangements with the hotel or restaurant, paying the bill in advance; or you might open a charge account at a hotel, which will give you the privilege of signing checks. Otherwise, you will just have to dig deep in your purse and insist upon paying. Some men are a little squeamish about this latter technique; but if that is the only arrangement you can make, insist upon doing it.

Apollo Citizens Have Chance To Buy Steel Mill

Citizens Have To Obtain $50,000
By Friday: Additional $200,000
By June 30

APOLLO, Pa., May 24.—(INS)—The townspeople of Apollo had a chance today to become owners of the only industry in town—a steel mill—if they can raise $50,000 by Friday.

If the 3,200 inhabitants reach that goal, they have until June 30 to raise an additional $200,000, which is the price the Phoenix-Apollo Steel Company is asking for its plant.

Howard C. Keiser, president of the firm, made the offer to the community despite a "liquidity" proposal from the Hertz Construction Company of Niles, O.

The company is closing the mill June 30, Keiser said, because it can't get sheets, bars or hot strip steel. It employs about 750 men.

At a meeting in the high school last night, directors of the Chamber of Commerce told citizens a non-profit organization would be formed to take over the mill, providing they can raise the money.

Subscribers to the proposal were assured that if the venture fails, the Hertz Company has offered to buy the machinery and equipment for the original $250,000.

The Chamber of Commerce directors argued the Hertz offer would still enable the town to have a plant and land to lure another industry to Apollo.

Duff Lauds State Dairy Industry

Predicted State Would Take Leading Part In National Celebration Of Dairy Month

HARRISBURG, May 24.—(INS)—Pennsylvania's multi-million dollar dairy industry was hailed today by Gov. James H. Duff who predicted the state would "take a leading part in all activities connected with the nationwide celebration of June as dairy month."

"As one of the leading dairy states," he said, "Pennsylvania has developed the industry to the point where the commonwealth now ranks first in the manufacture of ice cream, first in the amount of milk delivered to the consumers by producers, second in the total amount of milk consumed, third in gross farm income from dairy products, third in the value of farm butter sold, fifth in the value of dairy cows, seventh in milk production and ninth in the number of milk cows."

AEC Manager Is Sure Some Papers Have Been Stolen

At Same Time He Disclosed Removal Of Two Bars Of U-235 From Washington

WASHINGTON, May 24.—(INS)—Carroll Wilson, general manager of the Atomic Energy Commission, declared today he is "sure" that some documents have been stolen from the nation's atomic installations.

At the same time, Wilson disclosed that the removal of two bars of uranium 235 from the Hanford, Wash., atomic plant in a security test, was undetected for nine months.

Wilson made his disclosures in testifying before the Senate committee investigating security aspects of the AEC.

He was asked if it were true that "plans" of the commission have been stolen. He replied: "Out of millions of documents, I am sure some have been taken."

A commission spokesman said "no elaboration" could be made on Wilson's statement "at least until it is determined what the general manager had in mind when he made it."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of white satin and net, fashioned with long sleeves, a high neckline of sheer net with an off the shoulder effect of satin and a full skirt. Her full length veil of sheer net fell from a cluster of apple blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white calla lilies. She wore the traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue.

Mrs. Virginia Orelli, as her sister-in-law's matron of honor, wore a gown of lime green chiffon and lace, styled with a fitted bodice, cap sleeves and a full skirt. She wore a matching headband and carried an arm bouquet of red roses and yellow bells.

Anthony Elisco served the groom as best man.

Mrs. Alice McClure, organist, played a recital of nuptial selections.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents for the bridal party and the immediate families, after which a dinner was served, also at the home of the bride's parents for 60 guests. Senate Sentiment Grows For Unified Service Program

Even Stronger Unification Program Than Asked By Defense Minister Is Sought

WASHINGTON, May 24.—(INS)—Sentiment grew in the senate today for an even stronger armed service unification program than asked by Defense Secretary Johnson.

Sen. Lodge (R) Mass., said he will introduce amendments aimed at bonding the services so tightly that personnel could be shifted from one service to the other.

The amendments would be drastic enough to allow the transferring of sailors into the army or air force personnel into the Marines.

The bill as now written allows transfers only if "assigned combatant functions" are not disturbed.

Lodge translated the significance of the proposed change into dollar signs by saying he thought it would save a billion dollars beyond the 1-1/2 billion which senate armed service Chairman Tyding (D) Md., predicted can be saved by the committee-approved measure.

Funeral Rites For Explosion Victim

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., May 24.—(INS)—Funeral arrangements were planned today for Laura Dolan,

Her 13-year-old brother started a fire in the stove when it exploded last night. No one else was injured from the explosion or in the fire which followed and burned the house to the ground.

Two families with 10 children lived in the house.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

They Really Have the Upper Hand
It's almost impossible to make a youngster do something if he is determined not to. You can, of course, pick him up and forcibly carry him off to bed. But can you make him eat? And can you make him stay in bed?

Of course, this really isn't the question. Today, most parents don't believe in using brute strength to get the children's obedience. We know what sort of attitudes of resentment and even hatred may be built up by the strong-arm approach.

When our boy was younger his mother once asked him to do something. "You really can't make me do it," he said for some reason or other. My wife's answer, "No, probably not, but it will be very unpleasant for both of us." And this seemed to satisfy him. With that, he turned and went ahead with what he had been asked to do.

It's a good idea to try to avoid head-on conflicts. Even if we seem to win, we have really lost. A child, made by force to do something he resists, is building attitudes that will trouble him and us in the future. If we are patient and thoughtful, we can usually find ways of getting co-operation, even though it may be somewhat grudgingly given.

CLINTON, N. Y.—Today's college student apparently doesn't have very much time to waste. Undergraduates at Hamilton college, where there are a record 66 different extra-curricular activities for 600 men, find themselves so well-occupied that the Student Council recently petitioned the faculty to give at least a week's notice before an hour examination.

Another community project is under way in the county. This time it is at East Brook where the local Grange is developing a large tract of land. Part of the men plowed the land as seen in the lower photo with other men working up the land and planting in sweet corn. Sale of the vegetables will start a working fund for the building of a new Grange hall with the construction to start within the next year, according to J. E. Oesterling, master of the East Brook Grange. An artist sketch of the new two story building is shown in the top photo.

Commissioner Investigates New York's Private Clubs For Ticket Scalpers

NEW YORK, May 24.—(INS)—The plush and sacred sanctuaries of New York City's most exclusive private clubs were targets today of investigations commissioner John Murtagh's hunt for ticket scalpers.

Murtagh summoned officers of the Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Union League, Columbia, Raquet and Tennis, River, and New York and Downtown Athletic clubs. Members of the clubs can buy tickets for theater, circus, opera or sporting events merely by calling up. Murtagh reportedly wants to know whether the clubs are scalpers or scalpees.

Faltering Pirates Still Packing Them Into Stands

By JOHN GOLIGHTLY
(International News Service Staff Writer)
PITTSBURGH, May 24.—How do you explain it?

The Pittsburgh Pirates lost ten of 16 games on their recent road trip and came home a second division club. So the fans practically mob Forbes Field to get a look-see.

And they come to cheer, too. In nine home games this season, 218,259 passed through the turnstiles to lead the league in box office loyalty.

Baseball Crazy
The town's simply baseball crazy, and its confidence in the Pirates can't be shaken. And maybe, too, Bucco partisans believe in statistics.

Last year Pittsburgh topped the league in winning percentage at home with 47-31 for a .603 mark. The Pirates have won six out of the nine played so far this season and the three defeats were by one run.

The current Boston series probably will shove Pittsburgh even farther ahead of last year's attendance which was the best in the league, especially after the double thumping dealt the Giants on Tuesday and Wednesday.

"It's not hard to explain," said Rip Sewell, the veteran pitcher. "We haven't had time to unpack a grip since we left training camp last February."

"Those train rides, jumping from city to city," Sewell added, "sure take it out of you."

Settling Down
He figures the club is going to get in its big innings during the remaining five home games. The same opinion is shared by Manager Bill Meyer and just about every player. Being able to settle down in one place for a spell has done a lot for morale.

Although Pittsburgh beat a Giant team that had won 13 out of 16 at the Polo Grounds and stopped their hot streak completely, Leo Durocher wasn't much impressed.

The Bucs didn't pick on softies, either, in pitchers Clint Hartung and Larry Jansen. But the Giant manager still thinks Brooklyn and Boston are the clubs to watch.

Depends On Rackley
If First Baseman Eddie Stevens keeps hitting and Outfielder Marv Rackley, who the Pirates acquired in a trade with Brooklyn Tuesday, fills the centerfield spot, then the Bucs will be up for re-evaluation by the experts.

Rackley, a 327 left-handed hitter in 88 games last season, takes over as lead off batter. Wally Westlake moved to right field with Dixie Walker to spell him occasionally.

Probably Tuesday's night game victory over New York did more to maintain the pennant fever in town than anything else. Bob Chernes didn't have his normal stuff.

Yet he held the Giants to six hits, pitched out of many a jam and won his own game by leading off with a tremendous triple in the ninth inning. Pittsburgh took that one, 3-2—their third one-run victory at home.

Dickson Could Help
Should Murray Dickson hit his stride and give Bill Werle, Bob Muncie and Rip Sewell a lift, along with Chernes' apparent pickup, the Bucs will shatter the all-time Pittsburgh attendance record established last season.

As Pie Traynor, the former great Pirate third baseman who now does a nightly sports broadcast in Pittsburgh, said: "Pittsburgh's pitching is as good and maybe better than any in the league."

"They have 11 fellows who can go in there and you're sure they'll put the ball over the plate," Pie explained. "And each can pitch in relief also."

Regardless of what happens, it seems only a complete nose dive into the National League cellar will stop those clicking turnstiles.

NO BUNNY HUG?
LONDON.—Brian Vesey Fitzgerald, whose hobby is watching mammals, has caught badgers in both somber and gay moods. Badgers, he told a nature study group, bury their dead. They also gather in dells and dance—something like a quadrille.

OLYMPIA, Wash.—St. Martin's college announced the subject for its weekly science seminar as "The Mathematical Analysis of a Crap Game."

UNIQUE ART EXHIBIT

ST. LOUIS.—Thomas Hart Benton, famous American artist, once said: "I'd rather exhibit in a saloon than in an art museum"—in other words so more people could see his work. Ten prominent St. Louis artists now are exhibiting in a St. Louis hotel's cocktail lounge.

MARRIAGE AID SEEN

LONDON.—The British government is expected to accept a proposal that it should "finance marriage guidance centers and supervise the training of marriage counsellors." These bureaus would advise people considering marriage on how to avoid divorce and domestic distress.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERP

When Thomas Mann first visited southern California, Mrs. Bruno Frank invited the most important people in Hollywood to a party to meet him. It was a function that would have gladdened the heart of any Sunday magazine editor.

For once the brilliant guests lived up to their reputations. The conversation scintillated. Everything clicked. At the height of the festivities, the late Carl Laemmle, powerful head of the Universal studio, tapped the hostess on the shoulder.

"It's a wonderful party," he told her. "Tomorrow morning, if you don't mind, my secretary will phone to get Mr. Mann's address and a complete list of your guests. I want to have exactly the same party at my house next week."

Nats Open Series With Vandergrift Pioneers Here Tonight

Uniontown Captures Double Bill 10-2, 4-1

New Castle's Nats find themselves back in the cellar in the Mid-Atlantic league race today, as the result of dropping two at Uniontown last night—10-2 and 4-1.

Tonight the Nats will attempt to climb back out of the basement, by upsetting the Vandergrift Pioneers at Flaherty Memorial field. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

Two Johnstons wins over the Vandies last night, and Butler's split with Erie, caused the Nats to leave the rarified air of a sixth place tie with the Johns.

Patched-Up Lineup
Using somewhat of a patched-up lineup at Uniontown, the Nats won one game 12 to 5 Sunday. The departure of Bob Churchill, who could not get himself in shape, having developed a sore arm, caused Manager Billy Monicelli, to put Wally Franiak in left field, and Felix Buccichioni, at first base. The Nats must add some strength in the next few days, to carry them through a tough next month.

The Nats owe the Vandergrifts a licking for the three straight defeats at Vandergrift recently. Maybe the Nats will catch the Vandies on the down-grade today after dropping two to Johnstown.

Wagner Goes Tonight
Manager Monicelli announced today that Frank Wagner the veteran, will seek his fourth win tonight. Wagner lost to Vandergrift recently. He wants to redeem himself tonight.

Bill Torrey, a new outfielder joined the club at Uniontown. He played left field in the twin-bill last night, and gave a good performance. Franiak has been shifted back to first base.

Willie Jefferson, from the Cleveland Buckeyes, has joined the Nats and will see action in the Vandergrift series starting here today. Jefferson is a highly regarded pitching ace. He and Johnny Brown were team-mates with the Buckeyes.

Maxim Defeats Gus Lesnevich

Cleveland Light-Heavy Will Get Crack At Freddy Mills And World Title

CINCINNATI, May 24.—(INS)—They beat the funeral tom-toms today for aging Gus Lesnevich and a couple of promoters who went $40,000 into the drink trying to find out if Gus could save his national light-heavy crown from Joe Maxim—which he couldn't.

The 27-year-old Maxim plouretted and fabled his way into for a title whack at England's world 175-pound champ, Freddy Mills, by scoring a unanimous decision over the 34-year-old Lesnevich at Cincinnati Gardens last night.

Gate Disappointing
Promoters Sam and Benny Becker had it all figured. The winner of last night's bout would meet Mills for the world title at Cincinnati's Crosley Field next September, with an $80,000 guarantee to the Britishers.

How they felt about it today, however, was another question. Where a capacity crowd of 14,000 was expected last night, exactly 6,931 showed up. Where a gross gate of $100,000 was fondly anticipated, $56,151 materialized.

What the debacle meant to the Becker boys could not immediately be ascertained, but what it meant to Lesnevich seemed clear and forthright. Gone was his right to meet the Ezzard Charles-Joe Walcott heavyweight title winner, a right he would have had if Lee Saville, the first heir apparent, had lost in his forthcoming British match.

Instead, it was Maxim, Jack Kearns' slim, high-voiced white hope from Cleveland, who emerged the new "possible" in the heavyweight picture. After all, Maxim fought Charles to a highly-disputed split decision in those same Cincinnati Gardens three months ago.

Moose Club Stops DeCarbos Streak

Hand Heretofore Unbeaten DeCarbos 12 To 1 Trouncing Shamrocks, Tigers Win

The Moose club softball team shattered the winning streak of the DeCarbo Bombers last night at Gaston park field, trouncing the heretofore undefeated Bombers 12 to 1 before a large crowd.

The stunning win puts the Moose club tied with the DeCarbos for first place with seven victories and one defeat apiece.

Maggie Fans Nine
The Bombers took a one run lead in the early stages but it didn't take long for the Moose to batter Spanish off the hill for seven runs in the third inning. Joseph relieved Spanish and also retired in the big third, with Tony Capp finishing.

Roger Maggie, the old "pro", was himself last night, setting the Bombers down with three hits and fanned nine batters. DeGennaro had a grand-slam homer for the Moose and Pia and Devitto also had extra-base hits for the Jimmy Valentino manager Moose clubbers.

The East Side Shamrocks defeated the Pearson Street team last night in a softball game at Rose avenue field, 8-5. Heavy hitters were Miller, P. Hawkins and C. Hawkins. Suzov was the winning hurler and Moran the loser.

Shady Side Tigers upset the Blackhaws last night at Dean park 6 to 1 with Greg Ross hurling a one-hitter. Rocky Piano spoiled Ross' bid for a no-hitter with a home run clout. Heavy hitters were Fornataro, Demos and Jacobs.

County League Nines Face Full Card Wednesday

Clubs Are Beginning To Reach Full Strength With Addition Of School Players

Lawrence County league schedule for Wednesday finds all eight teams in action again and with some good help from the weather-men, each of the nines should be able to field the strongest teams.

The paring down and tryout stage is becoming history and promising young high school ball players who were playing for their school can now devote full-time to the County league.

Bessemer embarks on a busy two-night schedule by meeting New Galilee at Bessemer (tonight) and Langling with their old rival Hillsville on Wednesday at home.

Hillsville Game Important
A win tonight will put the Martindale back in a tie for first place. Hillsville is also fighting to move up in the top rung and in recent games has moved to within a half-game of Bessemer. The Wednesday clash between these neighbors is not only steeped in tradition but will have an important bearing on the league standing.

Red Hot Ellwood VFW moves into Wampum for a game with the league leaders Wednesday. After a slow start, the Vets have come along rapidly and figure to establish themselves as a real threat by winning Wednesday. The victory club nine has been getting good pitching and timely power hitting. That has always been considered one of the best combinations in any league and foes of the DeMark nine will have to come up with even better pitching and more hitting to knock off last year's champs.

Saints Host Lowellville
Nose diving Lowellville meets winless St. Lucy at Hillsville. The Saints are continually looking for ways to strengthen the club and will probably be surprising everyone with a powerhouse once they achieve the proper combination.

Koppel fights it out at New Galilee in the fourth game on the card. New Galilee will be playing its third game in as many days Wednesday. Both of these clubs have given the first division teams some tough struggles and should play a head-up, aggressive ball game against each other.

All county league officials and umpires are requested to turn in a neat, orderly box score to The News on the morning following a game.

Ecclesian Lose To St. Margaret

Only Five Hits; Rozzi And Stone Hit Homers

Stone Allowed St. Margaret Only Five Hits; Rozzi And Stone Hit Homers

Only two games, postponed from Sunday, were played in the City Baseball league Monday evening and it resulted in a 5-2 victory for the St. Margaret club over the Ecclesian which dropped them into a tie 677, with the Franks for second place. The win for the Saints fattened their average but did not land them a new place in the standing. West Pittsburg lost to Lawrence Indies, 5-0, and these two teams are tied for first place.

Stone permitted only five hits for the Ecclesian club, and got a home run. A Rozzi, left fielder for the winner also poked a homer, while A. Orlando hit a double and triples were collected by West and Gentile.

The Saints got the jump on the Ecclesian club by scoring twice in the second, and amassed three more in the fifth. Ecclesian scored one run in the fifth and another in the sixth.

Orlando fanned seven and allowed eight hits in six innings when Snyder took over. He gave two free trips. Stone had four strikeouts and allowed three to walk to first base.
